

Resolution Regarding U.S. Engagement in Securing a Just Resolution of the Israeli/Palestinian Conflict

WHEREAS the state of Israel has refused to recognize the rights of the Palestinian people to coexist in the land both peoples claim as their homeland; and

WHEREAS both Israelis and Palestinians deserve a safe and secure state; and

WHEREAS Israel and Palestine are unable to solve the conflict themselves; and

WHEREAS both Israel and the United States continue to ignore their agreements to support the Geneva Conventions and the International Bill of Human Rights on this issue; and

WHEREAS the failure of the United States to take a leadership role in peace negotiations has increased tensions in the Middle East and has caused significant deterioration in international relations; and

WHEREAS the lack of resolution has caused severe human suffering and stress to both peoples and played a direct role in increased violence in the Middle East;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that both Israelis and Palestinians should be expected to end all acts of violence and join in good faith efforts to resolve their differences; and

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the United States needs to take an active leadership role in seeking a fair and just resolution to the conflict; creating and recognizing a viable and contiguous state for Palestine beside the state of Israel; and

THEREFORE BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the United States should take steps necessary to insure the validity and sincerity of any negotiations and hold both sides to strict compliance to any peace agreements.
